

Currently we are searching for several companies different types of IT – Specialists, like:

IT Technicians with following duties:

- responsible specialist for all central departments for IT issues
- Contact person and support for field services
- Administration and maintenance of PC workstations, notebooks and other
- Software and hardware troubleshooting and analysis
- Installation and configurations in the client area

IT- Professionals / Specialists with the following responsibilities:

- Ensuring the proper operation of the currently existing ERP solution based on Navision/Microsoft Dynamics
- Further development of the IT organization as a service provider and business partner for the management
- Implementation of the common digitisation strategy
- Creation of transparency in the IT area and establishment of a central IT with flexible interfaces to other company departments
- Development of a long-term strategy to standardize the cross-client IT landscape
- Managing the IT - Security

IT Developers

All kind of experienced Software – Developer

Depending on the area of specialising – with responsibilities & skills in:

- New and further development of complex client-server applications
- Analysis, design, test, documentation and solution of complex development tasks
- Maintenance and extension of existing software
- Development of exciting individual software with C#, C++, Python, Java, Javascript
- Professional Android development for mobile Apps & database
- IT- administration and web applications development with PHP , Ruby, HTML, CSS
- Database development
- Independent implementation of smaller projects and team play for larger projects
- Experience in dealing with the operating systems of Windows, Linux, Apple
- Experience in handling with server- administration works

Send your application to : apply@aviares.de

We look forward to you !